

WYANFP Spring Conference in Thermopolis

Thermopolis is proud to host the 2017 WYANFP Spring Conference in Thermopolis April 26-28. We are eager to welcome you to the home of Hot Springs State Park, Wind River Canyon, the waters of the Big Spring, and the world famous Wyoming Dinosaur Center.

We've built in time for you to enjoy the soothing waters of Big Spring at the aquatic centers, Days' Inn Spa, or a relaxing soak at the State Bath House. Join us for a group tour you won't want to miss; a 2 hour tour with interpretive guide, Andre Rossi, at the nationally recognized Wyoming Dinosaur Center.* All this, plus 10.5 ANFP approved education hours.

REGISTRATION

- Send in your registration located on the WYANFP website in the April newsletter

LODGING

- Contact Day's Inn at 307 864-3131 to reserve your room at the special rate of $85.00 + tax by April 15th

FREE FOOD at Presidents Welcome Reception*

- 5-7pm Wednesday April 26 you are invited to a cookout at the Kiwanis shelter a short distance from Day's Inn. This is a great time to test our members cooking ability on the grill. (In the event of bad weather the reception will be at the Gottsche Cafeteria located in Hot Springs County Memorial Hospital 150 East Arapahoe in Hot Springs State Park)

Don't forget your bathing suit!
