Let's Celebrate

November 2025

National Veterans and Military Families Month

Educate

- Learn the facts about military families.
- Hear from veterans and families about their experiences and military life in podcast form.
- Learn about the sacrifices of military men and women in the Smithsonian's online exhibit, 'The Price of Freedom'.
- Read the proclamation of the National Veterans and Military Families Month.

Take Action

- Donate to Wounded Warrior or other military service support organizations.
- Send a care package or adopt-a-solider.
- Fly the American flag.
- Work with your colleagues and staff to help veterans in the workplace.

Chapters

In addition to the tools and resources listed above, chapters can take further action to celebrate National Veterans and Military Families Month at the state level:

- Invite a veteran to share their story at your next meeting, or host a special webinar during the month of November with veterans from different military branches (consider inviting a veteran ANFP member).
- Share ANFP's social media post and resources for National Veterans and Military Families Month and be sure to recognize Veteran's Day (November 11).
- Recognize service men and women at each of your chapter meetings.
- Host a supplies/food drive and care package assembly event at your next chapter meeting.
