

SECURE YOUR FUTURE WITH AN ANFP YOUTH APPRENTICESHIP

Take your culinary career to the next level! Leading healthcare employers are eager to employ Certified Dietary Managers, Certified Food Protection Professionals (CDM, CFPPs) to stay at the top of their industries.

As an ANFP apprentice, you can earn the nationally-recognized CDM, CFPP credential and acquire relevant, employer-paid work experience in foodservice management.

The ANFP Youth Apprenticeship Program provides 16-21 year olds in high school or who are enrolled in a college program a new pathway to a stable career by combining applicable academic and technical instruction with paid, structured work experience.

TAKE CONTROL OF YOUR FUTURE CAREER: Visit <https://www.ANFPonline.org/apprenticeship> for more details

BENEFITS UPON PROGRAM COMPLETION

- Popular as an alternative to college
- A well-paying position in food service management
- Eligibility for the CDM, CFPP credential
- Career training resulting in immediate employment
- Invaluable industry experience and networks
- The expectation to earn $300,000 or more over your career
- Invaluable food service industry experience

OPPORTUNITIES FOR APPRENTICES

- Get paid from day one and earn while you learn
- Learn and master cutting-edge skills
- Build relevant on-the-job experience and gain exposure to workplace norms
- Receive regular mentoring and career support
- Access employer healthcare benefits and professional development programs

ABOUT THE YOUTH APPRENTICESHIP INTERMEDIARY PROJECT

The Youth Apprenticeship Intermediary Project, led by the Urban Institute in partnership with the Department of Labor's Office of Apprenticeship, brings together schools, colleges, employers, workforce development organizations, and other stakeholders to increase the quality and quantity of registered youth apprenticeship positions available to young Americans.

Learn more here: <https://www.urban.org/ya>

94%

Number of apprentices retained employment after completing their apprenticeship

$60K

Average starting salary of an apprentice upon qualification

$300K+

Lifetime earning boost a qualified youth apprentice can expect to receive

Content in this flyer regarding the benefit of apprenticeship is courtesy of the Urban Institute.