

Association of Nutrition & Foodservice
Professionals

January 2021 COVID-19 Survey Results

Food & Supply Availability and Costs

Has your foodservice operation been affected by food item and/or supply shortages during COVID-19?

Yes, we experienced both food item and supply shortages and it is still an issue

Yes, we experienced both food item and supply shortages, but it has improved

Yes, we experienced food item shortages, but not supply shortages, and it is still an issue

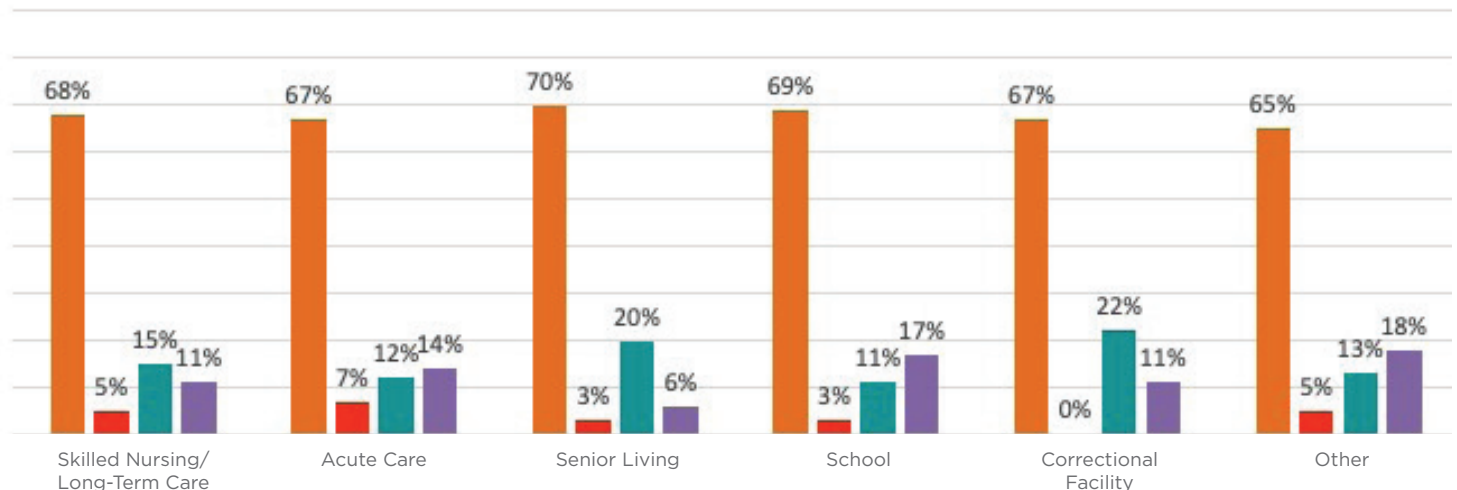

Yes, we experienced food item shortages, but not supply shortages, but it has improved

Yes, we experienced supply shortages, but not food item shortages, and it is still an issue

Yes, we experienced supply shortages, but not food item shortages, but it has improved

No, we did not experience significant food item or supply shortages

Have your food and/or supply costs changed during the pandemic?

Yes, both food and supply costs have risen

Yes, food costs have risen, but supply costs remain about the same

Yes, food costs have remained about the same, but supply costs have risen

No, food and supply costs have both remained about the same