Did your foodservice staffing levels change during COVID-19?

- Skilled Nursing/Long-Term Care: 52% decreased, 36% stayed the same, 8% increased
- Acute Care: 49% decreased, 41% stayed the same, 6% increased
- Senior Living: 54% decreased, 35% stayed the same, 7% increased
- School: 44% decreased, 38% stayed the same, 17% increased
- Correctional Facility: 43% decreased, 36% stayed the same, 21% increased
- Other: 49% decreased, 40% stayed the same, 5% increased

Did your foodservice overtime hours change during COVID-19?

- Skilled Nursing/Long-Term Care: 60% decreased, 31% stayed the same, 6% increased
- Acute Care: 42% decreased, 41% stayed the same, 16% increased
- Senior Living: 47% decreased, 36% stayed the same, 16% increased
- School: 75% decreased, 8% stayed the same, 15% increased
- Correctional Facility: 60% decreased, 27% stayed the same, 7% increased
- Other: 44% decreased, 44% stayed the same, 11% increased

Legend:
- Orange: Yes, it decreased
- Red: Yes, it increased
- Teal: No, it stayed about the same
- Purple: Short term decrease due to COVID positive staff members under quarantine
If you had dietary staff that worked in multiple care communities, were they allowed to continue to work in your community during the pandemic?

[Bar chart showing the percentage of facilities allowing dietary staff to continue working in different care communities.]

Was your consultant Dietitian allowed to come into your building during the pandemic?

[Bar chart showing the different scenarios for consultant dietitian access in various care communities.]

- Yes
- No, dietitian worked their contracted hours offsite and collaborated with staff weekly
- No, dietitian was on call and consulted with staff when needed
- No, foodservice staff worked with nursing staff to complete clinical assessments without dietitian input
- N/A - we do not use a consultant dietitian