"Firing" From a Board or Committee Position

Policy Wording: If a volunteer is not fulfilling his or her duties, the national, chapter or district Executive Board has the right and responsibility to find a new volunteer to finish out the term.

The board must follow guidelines in terminating a volunteer's services:

- 1) Each volunteer position should have timelines that need to be met so that each volunteer knows when project deadlines are and if he or she can meet those deadlines.
- 2) Each volunteer has the right to know his or her responsibilities and the timeline in which he or she is to complete his or her tasks. This information should be given to the volunteer before he or she assumes their volunteer position.
- 3) If a volunteer fails to meet one deadline, the Executive Board should attempt to contact the volunteer and find out if help is needed. If the volunteer needs support, proper support should be given (i.e. if the Newsletter Editor needs someone to address and stamp the newsletters after it has been printed, volunteers should be sought for this). The volunteer who has expressed a desire for help should be given it.
- 4) A volunteer who fails to meet two or more deadlines, or misses two or more meetings without notifying a board member should be put on probation. Probation includes:
 - a. Written notice that deadlines have not been met;
 - b. A face-to-face meeting or phone call to the volunteer to make sure he or she understands the deadlines and his or her responsibilities;
 - c. Assigning a board member to keep in contact with the volunteer on a weekly basis to make sure deadlines are being met.
 - d. Depending on the volunteer duties, a timeline in which to meet deadlines should be established or termination will be sought.
- 5) If a volunteer fails to meet his or her responsibilities after this probation, the Executive Board may vote to terminate the volunteer and find a replacement.
- 6) Throughout this process, all communication (including e-mails, letters and phone calls) should be documented, including date and time, and a copy should be sent to the national Advocacy Department. If a dispute arises, the national office needs to know what has transpired.
- 7) If it is an Executive Board member who is not fulfilling his or her duties, the same process should be followed.

The key to all volunteer jobs is an understanding of what is expected and when. If a volunteer has not been given proper training, he or she cannot be expected to fulfill his or her duties correctly. Please make sure all volunteers have some sort of training and are comfortable with the job they are to do before they take over!

Policy 16 Reimbursement

Reimbursement Procedure

Policy Wording: To avoid problems with volunteer jobs that involve the exchange of money, the following guidelines should be followed:

- Money should never be given to a volunteer directly to pay for a product or service before the product or service has been purchased.
- Timelines should be established so that the volunteer has enough time to notify the treasurer to whom the check should be made out and where it should be sent. This will avoid problems of volunteers accepting money to complete a task and then not finishing it. For example, a member volunteers to develop a Web site for the chapter; the chapter gives the volunteer money to pay a vendor to develop the site, but the site is never developed. Instead, the money should be paid directly to the vendor.
- Maximum allowable charges should be established so that volunteers do not pay too much for a product or service. For example, if the maximum allowable fee for getting the newsletter printed is $500, the volunteer should not be allowed to spend $700 unless he or she has authority from the board prior to the printing.
- If a volunteer must outlay money for his or her volunteer job (i.e. the membership chair must make phone calls and send letters using his personal phone and stamps), the volunteer should seek reimbursement after the job has been completed.
- The chapter and/or district should have a reimbursement form with guidelines of what can be reimbursed. These guidelines should also include the maximum allowable rate of reimbursement for things such as hotel rooms, mileage and food.
- Volunteers should be given blank reimbursement forms at the beginning of their term and should have a set number of days after an outlay in which to submit a reimbursement. For example, if a chapter president needs reimbursement for hotel expenses for a chapter meeting, he or she must turn in the reimbursement within 10 days after the meeting. This will avoid volunteers seeking reimbursement for an activity that happened a long time ago.
