

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Can I nominate myself?

Yes. Simply complete the Volunteer Interest Form. Provide your contact information and position of interest. A staff member will then contact you with detailed instructions on applying.

How do I nominate a candidate?

It is recommended to share position descriptions with the individual and advise them to click on the Volunteer Interest Form button if interested.

You may also nominate someone via the Volunteer Interest Form. A staff member will then contact them with instructions on applying (be sure to inform the individual that you have nominated them and that ANFP will contact them with instructions on how to apply).

What Board/Committee positions need to be filled?

- 3 Directors at Large
- 7-8 Awards & Recognition Committee
- 6 Chapter Leadership Team
- 8 Communications & Marketing Committee
- 3 Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee
- 2 Editorial Advisory Board
- 3 Government Affairs Committee
- 15 Item Writers Committee
- 2 Professional Development Committee (1 RD, 1 CDM, CFPP)
- 7 Program Review Committee (5 RDs, 2 CDM, CFPPs)

What is the nominating process?

Submit your interest via the Volunteer Interest Form and a staff member will contact you with detailed instructions on how to apply. The Leadership Development Committee reviews candidates and selects individuals that will move to the interview phase. Then, based on results of interviews and ranking, the committee will select individuals to recommend for the slate that is presented to the Board. Review the Volunteer Process Timeline for details of the entire nomination process.

When are nominations due?

The deadline for nominations is February 1, 2024.

What If I am not selected?

If not selected, we recommend you try again next year. Nominees may also be recommended for volunteer positions at the chapter level.

How long is the term of service?

The length of service varies by position. Please refer to the Criteria & Expectations document.
