Winter Newsletter 2023

Hello Georgia-ANFP!

We hope you all had a fantastic Christmas and looking forward to a wonderful New Year.

Georgia-ANFP has been busy, the week before Christmas was our time to shine. In September at our Fall Meeting in St. Simons, Georgia our President -Elect, Teresa Faison mentioned that we were going to participate in a cookie drive serving the Airmen at Robins AFB.

Our goal was to deliver as many cookies as possible to the Robins Spouses Club & Philanthropic Association. I believe we hit are mark by donating over 2,400/200 dozen of cookies to the Association. In addition, we donated 500+ 1 gallon zip -lock bags, and a financial contribution of 300.00 on behalf of Georgia-ANFP to purchase cookie containers for the Airmen. Overall, the Robins Spouses Club collected 9,600 cookies/ 800 dozen in total... WOW!

In attendance were Felix Jones, Teresa Faison, Mark Riley, and Ariel Womack our current board members. The board wants personally thank Teresa Faison for spearheading this project., for such a heartwarming cause during the Christmas holiday.

In more news our Tri State Virtual Meeting in October was very successful, we averaged around 80-100 members per session, Clara Poole President of FLA-ANFP was extremely happy with the results, FLA-ANFP will be having another free live meeting in their State soon. They are hoping to get back on the map in 2023.

ANFP National will be holding a Town Hall Meeting!!
