Hello Iowa ANFP members!! We are so excited to be offering a Serv Safe class the day before our Fall meeting. The fee is $70.00 for the cost of the book, testing, lunch and snacks! We are thrilled that Performance Food Group and CORE Foodservice will be hosting the class. Then the next day attend the Fall meeting at the Hilton Garden Inn in West Des Moines. What a great way to connect with old friends, meet new ones and share trials and tribulations of our jobs. It is a time to bond with other professionals in an atmosphere of learning and fun! The board spends a lot of hours planning these meetings to meet our CEU's and create this time and space for your enrichment and enjoyment. We know how hard you all work and want to spend time celebrating you. This time gives you opportunity to connect and network amongst peers. We are looking for people to volunteer to serve our great organization! I raised my hand and haven't regretted it one moment. Because of my involvement with ANFP I feel empowered to do my job better every day! I have found lasting friendships and support I would never have had without our organization. The board is here for you, please reach out to anyone of us for anything, we are here. I look forward to seeing you all!!
