

---

Requirement I: Organizational Culture

1.2 Program Staff Qualifications

The program personnel meet the qualifications defined by ANFP.

FACULTY – a qualified professional with at least two years of practitioner competency who has teaching responsibility at the program site.

- Nutrition and Medical Nutrition Therapy classes must be taught by a Registered Dietitian Nutritionist (RDN).
- Instructors who teach online must have completed a formal online instructor training program.

PROGRAM DIRECTOR – the individual employed by the College, responsible for the ANFP Approved Training Program. Must meet one of the following criteria:

- Registered Dietitian Nutritionist or Licensed Dietitian
- Professional educator with a background in nutrition, health care, and/or foodservice

Complete Form 1.2 A for each faculty member.

- Include a resume for each person completing Form 1.2 A.
- Include a copy of current CDR card for Registered Dietitian Nutritionists teaching the Nutrition and Medical Nutrition Therapy class.

Complete Form 1.2 B for the program director.

Complete Form 1.2 A for each faculty member.

- Include a resume for each person completing Form 1.2 A.
- Include a current CDR card for Registered Dietitian Nutritionists teaching the Nutrition and Medical Nutrition Therapy class.
- NOTE: Instructors for online or hybrid programs must have completed a formal online instructor training program. Attach policy that shows the requirement or documentation of training.

Complete Form 1.2 B for the program director.

---

Requirement I: Organizational Culture

Form 1.2 B - Program Director Qualifications

| Form 1.2 B - Program Staff Qualifications  |  |
|--|--|
| Name and Title of Program Director (please print)  |  |
| Preferred E-mail Address   |  |
| A complimentary issue of Nutrition & Foodservice EDGE magazine will be mailed to this address. |  |
| Description of Qualifying Background   |  |
| List all courses within the ANFP Training Program taught by the faculty member                 |  |

Include a resume with this completed form.