First and foremost I would like to wish you all a Happy Holidays! I hope you will be able to spend time with your loved ones throughout this season, and that you are able to enjoy some great food and company!

Thank you to all that took our Engagement Survey, there was some great feedback from 64 of our members, and we will be sending out the results to everyone after the board is able to review them at our next meeting, December 13th. If you would like to attend that meeting, please let me know and I will send you the Teams meeting invite. Congratulations to Lindsay Gronski and Jen Gorman as they have won the Amazon Gift Cards for completing the survey!

We will also be reaching out to the folks that have stated that they would be interested in volunteering in some capacity within the next few weeks as well. Thank you to those that said they could help, it is much appreciated!

Have a great week!
