Happy Fall, deer hunting will be starting soon if not already with bow season. Everyone that hunts or that will be in the woods please be safe and for those that are driving be careful of the deer that love to run out in front of us.

Also wishing you all a Blessed Thanksgiving, enjoy your friends and family and eating all of our favorite foods.

Our facility is taking up a collection for our local food party at this time and I will deliver the first of November so it can be used to help many people have a great Thanksgiving feast. My Administrator is helping with the cause and we are challenging staff and departments to reach deep into their pockets. As we did at our Fall Conference, we are drawing names for gifts for those that have donated. One small department donated $200. We are also collecting nonperishable groceries. Please see the list of items that can be accepted at most food pantries, located on page 4 of this newsletter.

God is good and we are blessed to have such a great place to work and be able to help the less fortunate.

We also have recently held a baked potato lunch and opened it up to the public. We raised over $700 and the money will be going to one of my cooks' mother who has been diagnosed with brain cancer.

Take care

I guess WINTER is officially here. It SNOWED last night. Yes, that beautiful, fluffy, white stuff that we all refer affectionately to as SNOW!?!? AND IT'S ONLY THE END OF OCTOBER!!!!!! But, mother nature will bless us as she sees fit, regardless as to whether we like it, or not. I suppose it could be worse, so I should be thankful! LOL

I hope everyone has their holiday plans in place already and moving forward with your planning forward into the new year. Remember we have the Super Bowl, Sunday, February 2, 2020, Pride in Food Service Week, February 3-7, 2020, Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day, etc, etc, etc. Remember...share your functions with your fellow Dietary Managers. Send me a short story about what you did and if you would like, also include photos. Remember.....inquiring minds want to know!

Until next month....Live Long, and remember.....Failing to Plan is Planning to Fail!
