

WINTER NEWSLETTER-2021

Mission: Position the Certified Dietary Manager as the expert in foodservice management and food safety.

Vision: The Certified Dietary Manager is the cornerstone of the collaborative Dietetics profession.

Hello WV ANFP Members,

I hope this finds you well. It seems like forever since we were all in the same room. Spring and Fall came and left; I think twice 😊. We will figure out a way to cohabitate with this new virus and it will be one of the topics at one of our chapter meetings. The do's and don'ts, how to navigate through a pandemic, how we survived with minimal staff, etc.... We are overcomers. We are people that bring solution with problem. We are a particular people. At least this is what I believe. Foodservice people are resilient, we snap back. Sometimes we have to be our own cheerleaders but.... We do it anyway. Plans are in the works now for either a zoom meeting or in person meeting. You as members, please let us know which you prefer. Personally, I like in person. Networking is one of my favorite things about belonging to an association. We learn a lot from each other.

Please keep up your credentials. You guys are great at what you do. Our customers depend on it. Take this time to find education resources via ANFP marketplace. I'm glad they were able to offer a few free CEU's during this time. There are some really good resources mentioned on the ANFP Communities/Connect sites from member to member. And a lot of them are free CEU's. I know I was able to obtain a few from Food Handler Education and Training site. Abbott Nutrition and General Mills has some very good training/in-services. Be sure to ask your vendor reps for training/education opportunities to.

A great big Thank You to our 2019-2020 WV ANFP Board Members: President Eric McClung, Past President Todd Leisure, Treasurer Darlene Schoonover and Secretary/Newsletter Bob Luke. Each did a wonderful job working behind the scenes during some very difficult times.

2021-2022 WV ANFP Board Members are: President Penny Settle, Past President Eric McClung, Advisor/Mentor Todd Leisure, Interim Treasurer Eric McClung, and Interim Newsletter Robert Luke.

We need members to step up and volunteer for positions. I know it's tough right now but our association needs you. Your professional development and growth are far bigger than the work that is required to fill one of these positions.

Lastly, I pray that you and your family have a very Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year!

Respectfully,

Penny Settle, CDM/CFPP

From the editor:

This should be my last newsletter, Penny asked me to put something together to stay in touch with membership and keep membership updated on what is going on within our organization. We would like to ask membership a few questions concerning the possibility of getting back to having in-person continuing education/ seminars throughout the state. First of all, do you feel safe in attending, and will you possibly attend if we restart them back up again? Please send Penny Settle (our current President) your thoughts on this matter @ Penny.Settle@LPNT.net, so we can get some general feedback of membership's opinions of what we should do concerning meetings. Newsletter editor is an open position for someone to take over as soon as possible.
